The Swamiji proposes to leave Adam on the 29th inst. and return on the evening of 1st June.

7) The files relating to the visit of Sri Sangeri Swami in June 1895 and that of the Sivaganga Swami in July 1904 are put up. Arrangements in the C & M Station in the case of the former have been very elaborate, the route being lined by the British Infantry and the Hon'ble the Resident meeting the Swamiji at the entrance to the Station and exchanging Courtesies with him.

8) The visit of the Sivaganga Swami was comparatively a less elaborate affair, the C & M Station authorities only making the necessary Police arrangements and prescribing the route so that the procession may not have to pass through streets where there are Mahomedan
